CANDIDATES.

[All announcements to be paid for in advance.] A Circumstances well known to you and the rest of my fellow citizens rendering it inconvenient for me to make a very active political convers. I take this method of announcing myself a condidate for re-election to the office of Collector of the Northern District. Referring to the public accounts of the city as attesting the success with which I have heretofore discharged the duties of that office, and knowing full well the generous impulses which have ever marked the action of the good people of this city, I cannot believe that they will allow the temporary physical silliction, under which I am now suffering, to impair my claims to that confidence and support which they have extended to ma in the past, and I hereby gratefully and confilently a-k you to give me your support in the primary election soon to be held. Respectfully. Respectfully, JOHN T. HILL.

T RESPECTFULLY announce myself a can didate for the cilice of Superintendent of Police, subject to the decision of the primary GRORGE E PRICE

I RESPECTFULLY announce myself a can-didate for the effice of Collector of Taxes for the Northern District, subject to the action of the conservative primary election ap S too GEO. H. MARKELL.

ALEXANDRIA.—At the request o some of my friends and fellow citizens, I hereby announce myself a candidate for re-election to the position of Commonwealth's Attorney of the city of Alexandria. This announcement is made subject to the action of a nominating convention or primary election of the conservative party If I am re-clected to the office I shall devote my time, energy and ability to the discharge of the legitimate duties pertaining to it.

ion of the primary election, and respectfully request the support of my fellow citizens.
mh 30-te U. M. MONROE.

TO THE PEOPLE OF ALRXANDRIA CITY.—I take this method of announcing myself a candidate for re-election to the office of City Sergeant. Two years ago you appointed me to fill this place in a manner so flattering to myself that I feel now, as I did then, that my best efforts could never discharge the obligations under which you have placed me. For that manifestation of your confidence and regard. I have inbored to fulfill the duties of the office so that no one should regret the selection you then made, and, I hope I have done so acceptably to all. If I have met your approbation in the past and should receive your endorsement again I can only pledge a continuance of the same official conduct in the future. I believe I have disthe attornies, the juries and all others having business relations with the courts as well as to the public, and in asking your renewed support I am confident that no dereliction can be charged against me. I have always endeavored to act fairly, to make no distinction, to do no injustice to any one, and to be an impartial public officer. I, therefore, ask your undivided support in the approaching election, and, if it should Badges, &c. be your pleasure to elect me, it will be mine always to faithfully subserve your truest in-

Very truly your obedient servant te R T. LUCAS. mh 29-te CLERK OF THE MARKET-I respectfully announce myself a candidate for the posi tion of Clerk of the Market, subject to the censervative primary election. H B. WHITTINGTON.

THO THE CONSERVATIVE VOTERS OF A ALEXANDRIA.-Having been solicited by a number of my friends to present my name as a candidate for the office of Superintendent of Police, I take this method of announcing myself as a candidate for that office. I bag leave to refer to my past record as a conservative and to my fidelity to the party and its usages, to both of which I still adhere, and solicit the suffrages of the conservative voters of this city at the coming primary election, pleiging myself to abide by the result. Should it be your pleasure to elect me, I will devote my best energies to the discharge of the duties of the office. Respectfully JAMES P. COLEMAN.

N RESPONSE TO A PARAGRAPH IN the Gazette asking the use of my name as a candidate for election as Commonwealth's Attorney, I would say that the office in question would be a most acceptable one to me. I hereby announce myself as a candidate for that post tion, subject to the decision of the primary election, and earnestly ask my friends for their support. Respectfully, &c., mh 16-tf C. F. MARKELL.

T RESPECTFULLY ANNOUNCE MY. L self a candidate for the office of Commonwealth's Attorney. This announcement is made subject to the action of the primary election.

Dr. R. H. Stevens:

TARBORO, N. C., 1878.

Door bir-1 feel very grateful for what your veluable midicine, Vegetize, have done in my family. I wish to express my thanks by informing you of the wonderful cure of my son : also, to let you know that Vegetine is the best medicine I ever saw for Chills, Shakes, Fever and Aque. My son was sick with measles in 1873, which left him with Hip joint disease. My son suffered a great deal of pain, all of the time; the pain was so great he did nothing but cry. The doctors did not help him a particle, he could not lift his foot from the floor, he could not move without crutches. I read your advertisement in the Louisville Courier-Journel, that Vegetine was a great Blood Purifier and Blood Food. I tried one bettle, which was a great henceft. He tried one bottle, which was a great benefit. He kept on with the medicine, gradually gaining. He has taken eighteen bottles in all, and he is completely restored to health, walks without crutches or cane. He is twenty years of age. I bave a younger son. fifteen years of age, who is subject to Chills. Whenever he feels one coming on, he comes in, takes a dose of Vegetine and that is the last of the Chill. Vegetine leaves

BERNARDSTON, MASS., 1878.
We, the undersigned, having used Vegetine, take pleasure in recommending it to all those troubled with Humors of any kind, Dyspepsia, Nervousness, or General Debility, it being the great Blood Purifier. Sold by R. L. Crowell & Sons, who sell more of it than all other patent medicine put tegether.

Mrs. L. F. PERKINS, Mrs. H. W. SCOTT, JOSEPHUS SLATE. VEGETINE is the great health restorer—com-posed exclusively of barks, roots and herbs. It is very pleasant to take; every child likes it.

MONDAY EVENING, APRIL 15, 1878.

Hunter, the Murderer.

One by one the props which were to sustain Hunter and prove his innecence of the murder of John M. Armstrong are knocked from under him. The latest is that George S. Epp, who was to be the mainstay of the defence in proving an alibi, has refreshed his memory, and made affidavit to the fact that Hunter was not at his house on the mircht the murder took place. but on the afternoon before. On the next morning Hunter called at Epp - house and said, "Good morning George, do you want a hand?" "I thought he was joking, and did not mind it," says Epp.

"I would like to take a walk," said Hunter, "and we started out," continued Epp in his statement. "When we get out on the street Hunter told me that Armstrong had got into and that is the last of the Chill. Vegetine leaves no bad effect upon the system like most of the medicine recommended for Chills. I cheerfully recommend Vegetine for such complaints. I think it is the greatest medicine in the world.

Respectfully Mrs. J. W. LLOYD.

Vegetine.—When the blood becomes lifeless and stagnant, either from change of weather or of climate, want of exercise, irregular diet, or from any other cause, the Vegetine will renew the blood, carry off the putrid humors, leaves the stomach, regulate the bowels, and

me. He said:—

"This is Mr. Epp; he knows me. I was up at his house last night. Wasn't I, Mr. Epp?"

"I replied 'yes,'" says Mr. Epp, "and shortly after left the house.' Epp gives as an excuse for his former state ment that he believed Hunter was at his hous; on the 231 of January, but afterward remem bered that it was on the 221. He fails to make public what the conversation was on the way to Armstrong's house, or whether Iluster requested him to talk as he did. It will be remembered that at about the hour Epp said Hunter was at his house, Mrs. Spellissy positively asserts that Hunter was in her store, on Passyunk avenue, near Elsworth, purchasibg a hat, and one of Armstrong's workmen, afterward locates Hunter on Sansom street. Find ing that he was entirely unsupported, Epp concluded to tell the truth in the case. "I think it will be developed that a woman is mixed up in this case, and that she was cognizant of the plot concocted between Hunter and Graham," said Mr. Philip Armstrong, brother of the murdered man. And then he direct evidence against this woman, yet the suspicion is so well founded that when the trial comes off we will endeavor to show that she knew the murder was to be consummated. Graham told the Camden authorities all about my private affairs, and I am certain no one but Hunter could have let him into that secret." Hunter's counsel have requested that no one be allowed to see their client, unless at their suggestion; therefore the levees which the caged man has been holding have come to an end .- Philadelphia Record. THE JOHN M. BOTTS AND BECKHAM SUIT. The Supreme Court of Appeals yesterday in the case of Stearns, Beekham and Botts, grant ing the petition for a rehearing upon a single point; that is whether Steams' and Botts' representatives shall be allowed compensation for the value of the Confederate money paid to

This important and interesting case, decided by the Supreme Court of Appeals on 14th of March, grew out of a contrac dated the 29 h November, 1862, by which Franklin Steams and the late John M. Botts claimed to have purchased of James A. Beckham, of the coun y of Culpeper, his splendid landed estate called "Auburo," situated in that county, and some personal property, at the gross price of $100,000, cash, payable in Confiderate money. The suit was a bill filed by Steares and the heirs of Mr. Botts against the heirs of Backham to enforce the execution of the contract for the sale by having the title conveyed to them, they alleging payment of all the purchase money .-The defence, in the main, was that at the date of the contract Beckham was mentally incom petent to enter into a contract of such magni tude, and that it was procured and executed under such circumstances that a court of equity. according to the principles governing its juns.

diction, could not lend its aid to enforce it. The Circuit Court of Culpeper, at a special term held by the Hon. G. A. Wingfield, decided for the defendants and dismissed the bill of the plaintiffs, leaving them to their remedies in a court of law.

The Court of Appeals (on the 4th, of March) affirmed the decree of the Circuit Court, the opinion being delivered by Judge Burks, and concurred in by Judges Anderson and Staples, Judges Moneure and Christian dissented, hold ing that it was a case for the specific performance of the contract, and that the decree of the Circuit Court ought therefore to be reversed. The purchasers have been in possession of the property for thirteen to fourteen years. Mr.

Botts recovered from the United States gov-eroment $17,000 in greenbacks for wood cut from the place during the war by Federal The decree of the Court of Appeals above mentioned left the representatives of Botts to their action at law against Beckham's representatives to recover damages for a breach of the contract, without passing upon the question of an account and the value of the Confederate money. The present motion to rehear is an application to the Court to modify so much of the decree as relates to the It is made of Pure matter of the account and the Confederate Lead, Zinc and Lin- money.
